

Biography

ERNA MARINA KUSUMA M.PSI.C.FT

Child psychologist who is experienced in optimizing the development of children, specializing in special needs children. Having expertise in developing communication skills in children who experience speech delays or concentration problems. Together with her husband who is also a psychologist, established a psychology clinic to help the society both individually and organizationally. Completed her psychology education at the University of Surabaya, Master of Psychology at Padjadjaran University and took a short course in Kinesiology. Had also taken short courses and seminars in Adelaide Australia. Since 2007 has been speakers in various media such as magazines, radio and television for the topic of Child Development in Indonesia. Until now still actively providing parenting seminars in various schools in Indonesia and also recently started to develop themselves as a speaker couple with her husband for the topics around Family Problems.