

Biography

DR. SEOW TA WEE

---

Currently, Dr. Seow Ta Wee is an Associate Professor in Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia, (UTHM). He has 19 years of teaching, research and consultation experience. He obtained his Ph.D in Environmental Management from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), where he also received his Master in Environmental Management and Bachelor Degree in Arts (Geography). His transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary research covers aspects from geography, environment, and construction to social science. It also touches on the current niche area of the UTHM's research areas especially in the field of development and environmental management. Aside from having a broad range of teaching experience in UTHM, he also had appointed as the Guest Lecturer in Universitas Kepulauan Riau, Batam, Indonesia and Visiting Research Scholar at Department of Geography, University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka. He also involved in research consultation at national level such to develop National Occupational Safety, Health and Environment Policy, MARA Technical Vocational Education Strategic, Amendment of University & University College Act 1971 (AUKU) 2012, Master Plan for Johore's Forestry Strategic Plan 2016-2015. He also involved in ASEAN Autism Mapping Project as one of the principle consultant from Asia-Pacific Development Center on Disability and as project leader "the knowledge transfer on the Application of waste to energy technologies' in ASEAN. He has supervised more than 30 postgraduate students including post-doctoral, he also appointed as internal and external examiner for Ph.D and master students from other universities including The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. Apart from that, he also has published more than 320 publication in books, conference articles, journals and technical reports.